

EUROPEAN MARITIME CERTIFICATION INSTITUTE

Worldwide register for professional maritime practitioners

The European Maritime Certification Institute (EMCI Register) certifies maritime arbitrators, brokers (for commercial vessels and yachts) and mediators, yacht surveyors and harbourmasters. The EMCI Register is ISO 9001:2015 certified by Lloyds Register and supervised by the ICC Council. The EMCI Register is a subsidiary of the Global Network Group and holds several international accreditations and recognitions.

EMCI practitioners work to the highest international standards. Before qualifying, they must complete an extensive professional education and training programme, pass a knowledge and skills tests and comply with experience criteria. Once they are certified, all practitioners comply with the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) programme. Professional templates and model documents are available. In the unlikely event that something should go wrong, the EMCI Register includes compulsory rules for complaint handling and disciplinary sanctions, with optional arbitration or binding advice.

Professionals

EMCI certified professionals are well trained and motivated. They:

- put the customer's targets and goals first;
- deliver added value for money;
- keep improving themselves through Continuing

Professional Development programme (ongoing education);
